

Working Paper

Sponsors: Nigeria, Mexico, Myanmar, Guatemala, United States of America

Signatories: France, Kenya, Mozambique, Djibouti, Albania, Thailand, Bolivia, Australia, Germany, China, Ethiopia, Cambodia, Canada, Polereka, Brazil, Ecuador, Paraguay, Philippines, Iraq, Czech Republic, Switzerland, India, Iran, Portugal, Bangladesh, Eretria, Afghanistan, Jamaica, Rumania, Uganda, Chile, Hungary, Ukraine;

Agenda: Combating illicit drug trafficking and organized crime

Committee: United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

The United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime,

Reminding about the concerns related to the illicit manufacture, transfer and circulation of illicit drugs and their excessive accumulation and uncontrolled spread in many regions of the world (Nigeria);

Stressing the fact that this illicit manufacture and trade of narcotic drugs have a wide range of humanitarian and socio economic consequences and pose a serious threat to life, health, safety, security, stability and sustainable development (Nigeria);

Reaffirms about the growing evidence that the illicit use of drugs has been increasing in the past decade among undergraduate college students and pregnant women (Nigeria);

Reaffirms that the two of the three major international drug treaties have the purpose to codify internationally applicable control measures in order to ensure the availability of narcotic drugs for medicinal purposes and to prevent their diversion into illicit channels (Nigeria);

Reminding that the agreement of the international community which provide the legal foundation for action against organised crimes and that the collaboration of all states affected or involved is essential (Nigeria);

1) Strengthening international cooperation and comprehensive regulatory and institutional frameworks for the control of precursors used in the illicit manufacture of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances (Nigeria);

2) Enhancing detection and identification capacity for synthetic drugs for non-medical use by increasing international collaboration (Nigeria);

- 3) Supporting the International Narcotics Control Board in fulfilling its treaty-mandated functions in cooperation with Member States and in collaboration with the Commission on Narcotic Drugs and the World Health Organization (Nigeria);
- 4) Strengthening efforts to prevent drug abuse in educational settings (Nigeria);
- 5) Promoting the implementation of the electronic International Import and Export Authorization System for licit trade in narcotic drugs and (Nigeria);
- 6) Addressing the specific needs of vulnerable members of society in response to the world drug problem (Nigeria);
- 7) Strengthening international cooperation to assist the States most affected by the illicit transit of drugs, especially developing countries, based on the principle of common and shared responsibility(Nigeria);
- 8) Suggests the UN to give time for finding ways to enhance the capacity for law enforcement and other relevant agencies to counter illicit drugs through training (Nigeria);
- 9) Establishment of a special international body to tackle the opium production in Afghanistan and then focus on other drug producing states (Nigeria);
- 10) Suggests the implementation of country-specific programmes that reward people which are much more valuable than drugs for turning in illicit drugs and their traders (Nigeria);
- 11) Requests that rice, sugarcane and sesame to be grown in more quantities in Myanmar as its state's income is fuelled by poppy growing, so to accommodate a better alternate to be grown (Myanmar);
- 12) Urges that honest and good willed officials should be assessed and then hired in countries like Columbia (Myanmar);
- 13) Requests International Agencies to share intelligence about the location of drug cartels operating in different areas and eliminating major cartel leaders that are underground and difficult to locate (Myanmar);
- 14) Demands the implementation and maximise use of the Kingpin act to pursue transitional drug organizations (Guatemala);

- 15) Urges the UN to work with International partners to shut down emerging drug transit routes and associated corruption in West Africa (Guatemala);
- 16) Encourages the dismantlement of drug cartels with connections to terrorist organizations with a comprehensive approach (Guatemala);
- 17) Suggests that an institution is formed for better counselling and nurturing of youth who are the foot soldiers of organised crimes (Mexico);
- 18) Encourages the confiscation of financial funds that sustain organised crimes (Mexico);
- 19) Encourages the governments to denounce and criminalize corrupt banks, bankers and money launderers that profit from the drug trade, and thwart large scale and local drug trafficking (US);
- 20) Recommends the rejection of drug legalization for recreational purposes as it would consign more people to misery or even death while compromising civil society, social stability, equality and the law (US).